Read the following text and answer the questions given below it.

"We're waiting for you in school to start our sports practice. Are you coming?", asked the voice on the phone.

"I can't. I promised my mother I would weed the garden today", replied Kumar. He put the phone down and went into the garden sadly. As he started weeding, all he could think of was his friends having a glorious time at school.

"Kumar", called his mother from the house suddenly. "I overheard your conversation with your friends. Why don't you join them and do this later?"

"Really? Thank you mother", said Kumar gratefully. He was out of the house in a few minutes and headed for his school. However, in school he could not find friends. "They would have told me a lie." He thought. When Kumar returned home after a few hours his mother was waiting for him at the front door. To his surprise the garden was spick and span.

"After you left the house your friends came here to look for you" his mother explained. "They came to help you weed the garden."
